Paine and Anthony Busts Ordered by Hall of Fame

Brenda Putnam and Malvina Hoffman, portrait sculptors, have been commissioned to do the busts of Thomas Paine and Susan B. Anthony for the Hall of Fame of Great Americans, it was announced yesterday by Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, director of the shrine and a member of the Council of New York University. When completed, the busts will be placed in the Hall of Fame on the Bronx campus of N. Y. U., 181st St. and University Ave. Unveiling ceremonies are scheduled for May 18.

The sculptors were selected by a special art committee composed of fellow sculptors who are past presidents of the National Sculpture Society.
